Workshops/Presentations/Speeches

Comments from Organizations/Meeting Planners

- “I have facilitated programs for 2nd year graduate social work students which has included asking family members of our participants to speak to the group about their experiences as caregivers. Susanne graciously agreed to speak and share her journey as a caregiver. She was eloquent as she described her long, sometimes difficult journey. The students felt a connection with Susanne and her willingness to share. They felt comfortable enough to ask personal questions and share some of their stories. Susanne was kind enough to give her time and share some very personal insights and for that I am grateful.”
~ Mary Fisher-Bornstein, Social Worker, The Gathering Place
- One of my responsibilities is to coordinate experiential learning experiences for students. This includes medical students, nurses, social workers, and counselors. When I was looking for someone to speak to a group of first and second year students enrolled in an elective titled, “Cancer Survivorship and Integrative Therapies”, I invited Susanne. The students found Susanne to be very articulate and engaging. She was able to share her personal story very effectively and connected with the students. Susanne’s presentation was helpful and educational and provided the students an opportunity to understand how those who are experiencing a loss find ways to cope. She was open to questions and answered very honestly and openly. It was very generous of her to volunteer her time and much appreciated by the students.”
~ Betsy Kohn, MA, LPC, Director of Volunteers/Program Staff, The Gathering Place
- “Susanne has proven to be an excellent presenter, a proficient communicator, and an outstanding team member. Susanne’s presentations radiate with enthusiasm as she speaks of her profession, personal goals, and desire to make a difference in the lives of others. She excels in both prepared and impromptu speaking venues and consistently delivers an outstanding message. She effectively weaves humor into her presentations to illustrate an important point, which might otherwise be missed, or misunderstood. Susanne is always available to provide relevant, constructive and insightful comments to the other members. This gift assists fellow members in their quest for professional and personal growth. She has a gentle demeanor, which makes others receptive to who she is, what she is saying, and how she can help. As a participant, she will prove to be an important component of any event, but she is truly outstanding in her chosen field of marriage transformation through character development.”
~ Janice M. Sewell, DTM, Bailey Toastmasters, Club President
- “In 2009, Susanne was an advisor behind the scenes about content and structure for the one-day conference. She also delivered two excellent keynote presentations that included helpful handouts, audience participation, and practical insights that participants could take and use. One of the keynotes was done with less than 48 hours notice due to the cancellation of a presenter. In addition, she delivered a workshop for those wanting to build a closer bond with parents during marriage preparation, and she participated in a lively panel discussion at the end of the conference with other presenters.

“In 2010, we turned to Susanne to recruit, organize, and mentor all the workshop presenters for the conference. In addition, she delivered a keynote address that included humorous stories to help the participants connect with her relationship experiences. She helped the participants understand how to build skills in their lives that help relationships, such as friendship, and how relationship and marriage strengthening positively influence the rest of their lives. Susanne also co-presented two dynamic workshops on finding a partner and becoming relationship ready, and she participated on the presenters’ panel at the end of the day.

“We appreciated Susanne’s willingness to respond flexibly to our needs, her organizational skills, and her personable and excellent speaking ability.”

~ Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá’ís of Port Moody, BC, Canada

- “We appreciate the commitment and positive energy Susanne brings to each presentation. Without exception, the feedback we get about her talks is always enthusiastic and satisfied. For example, here are some audience comments from the most recent talk she gave:

- ‘Ms. Alexander was fun and to the point.’
- ‘You can tell she knows what she’s talking about.’

“Susanne’s grasp of the subject about which she speaks, her sense of humor, and her ability to connect with the audience are certainly noteworthy. We are more than happy to ask her to return again and again to share with participants in our programs.”

~ Krsnanandini Devi Dasi & Tariq Saleem Ziyad, Co-Directors, Dasi-Ziyad Family Institute

- “In preparing for the workshops, we appreciated working with someone so organized in providing logistical details, comprehensive handouts, and suggestions for success. The handouts were effective, because they were customized for the participants. Susanne was punctual, worked flexibly with an unknown facilitation assistant, encouraged group participation, and delivered useful content in a warm, direct, and approachable style. The participants responded enthusiastically that they appreciated the workshops and want to continue with relationship and marriage education. We would definitely invite Susanne back to assist with the process of strengthening this aspect of our community.”
~ Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá’ís of Calgary, Alberta, Canada
- “The response from the participants of both workshops was overwhelmingly positive. Their unanimous regret was that the workshops were over too soon. The workshops were facilitated so well and the information gleaned was so important and needed, that the participants are requesting additional and regular workshops on these subjects. Some of the skills that Susanne has are: attention to detail, a warm and relaxed presentation style, ability to adapt her presentation to the needs of the attendees, and capacity for reflection after a workshop or talk, in order to continually improve the quality of her work.”
~ Local Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá’ís of Albuquerque, New Mexico
- “Our experience with Craig and Susanne was great. I think they are brilliant, and the reviews for the course were incredible. They do a fantastic job.” Michael Mariano, Program Director, Bosch Bahá’í School, California

Comments from Participants

- “Susanne was very well-prepared, and her passion for the topic is evident. Her exercises addressed multiple adult learning styles. She is a non-anxious presence as a presenter, and she has a quiet leadership style that inspires confidence. We found the workshop to be enlightening and helpful.”
~Carolynn M. Miller, Sr. Business Manager, Student Services, Emory University, about Better Marriages Fiesta workshop “Caring for the Soul of Your Marriage”

- “What a blessing! Susanne did a wonderful job of guiding us through exercises and discussion points concerning connecting with each other through meditation, prayer, and learning to simply pay better attention to the spiritual aspects of our marriage relationship. While I am a Christian, I found that Susanne was able to present the material with skill and sensitivity to the needs of many faith traditions. It was very much a workshop aimed at shared spirituality, and it hit the mark. Thank you Susanne for your care and skill with this important topic.”
~ Bradley J. Miller, Senior Minister, Brookhaven Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), about Better Marriages Fiesta workshop “Caring for the Soul of Your Marriage”
- “John and I appreciated learning about character qualities and how specifically praying for those qualities can enrich our regular prayers for each other. We have also found your insights helpful in our prayers for our children and for others. We were able to reflect your calm and inviting presentation style in our private dialogue in the workshop and found that this also enhanced our spiritual connection. We have enjoyed the material that you provided and look forward to using to deepen our spiritual intimacy.”
~ Hope Colson, a certified Better Marriages Leader Couple with her husband John, about Better Marriages Fiesta workshop “Caring for the Soul of Your Marriage”
- “Your workshop was a turning point in our marriage and the practical tools—like active listening and the love languages (among many)—continue to help us.”
- “It was valuable and useful to learn about character qualities, having an opportunity for focused discussion, doing couple activities, and skills to use for a stronger marriage.”
- “Inspirational; reaffirming we’re on a good course in our marriage.”
- “I appreciated the opportunity to bond and work together in a structured environment with my spouse.”
- “We came up with some good ideas for working on our marriage.”
- “Rare opportunity to learn more about each other, including finding out my spouse’s love language.”
- “I liked the focus on techniques to strengthen our marriage and make our partner happier and ensure our marriage continues to grow.”
- “Made us realize that we have a good marriage.”
- “We have been married for over 50 years and we were surprised to discover things we didn’t know about our spouse.”
- “It was useful to have thought-provoking questions and spaces for real, structured reflection.”
- “Material was most valuable and useful.”
- “Great workshop! Very useful.”
- “Inclusion of the arts was very effective.”
- “It’s impossible to cover the topics in a lifetime (!), but this workshop was extremely well put together. The facilitators guided the group patiently and lovingly.”
- It was valuable to: “learn the character qualities”, “from other’s experiences, ideas, and solutions”, “what men and women think of each other”, “have quality content”, “communications exercises”, and “breakout sessions”
- “This was an outstanding workshop from every sense. We got so much out of it. We were blessed to have you. I don’t think we have been to any activity since we were married that was so helpful. Thank you for all of your kindness and for including everyone in your program so lovingly.”
- “Learned a lot about myself in a way that felt safe and comfortable.”
- “It gave my wife and me an opportunity to explore our relationship deeper.”
- “The materials were exceptional. The breakout sessions were critical and powerful for my spouse and me.”
- “Experience and expertise in subject matter was evident...”
- “Inspirational; reaffirming we’re on a good course in our marriage”
- “The information you have put together is great, your leadership kept us on target and moving forward, and the participants were wonderful.”

- “The interactivity, definitions, content, and humor were valuable.”
- “The book, presenters, demonstrations, and activities were very useful!”
- “Your presentation was informative and professional, yet warm and comforting. It is nice to think that happiness like yours is possible in this world!” Library Coordinator
- “Great job! Thanks for providing a very valuable opportunity to discuss issues of concern; thanks for promoting healthy relationships and marriage!”

Book Testimonials and Reviews

All-in-One Marriage Prep: 75 Experts Share Tips and Wisdom to Help You Get Ready Now

“This is an incredible book! Personally, I have been married for 34 years and have helped hundreds of couples as a Mars Venus Success Coach and a Prepare-Enrich mentor for over 12 years. I can tell you that this book is destined to become THE marriage preparation manual. So many great experts have graciously shared their collective wisdom on how couples can best get along, keep love sizzling, minimize conflict, adjust their expectations, and realize their own personal growth within the realm of relationship. Ah, now if we can only get copies to every high school and college student in the world! And wouldn't it be great to see this gem of a book as a major motion picture? Magnificent job, Susanne, what a fabulous idea this is!”

~ Melodie Tucker, Mars Venus Success Coach, Prepare-Enrich Mentor and ProConnect Specialist;
www.tinyurl.com/melodietucker

“What a treasure! To put all this wisdom and years of research into a practical yet powerful book takes someone with Susanne Alexander's talent and heart! As a reader, rest assured you have the latest and greatest information to create the relationship you long for!”

~ Pat Love, Ed.D., author of The Truth About Love and How to Improve Your Relationship Without Talking About;

“This book contains wisdom from many sources, some of it serious, some amusing, all of it valuable and useful to couples preparing for marriage. It is like getting advice from a lot of experienced, knowledgeable counselors, all in one place. It would be valuable to any couple who wants to know what it will take to create and sustain a lasting marriage.”

~ Tina B. Tessina, Ph.D., aka “Dr. Romance” http://drromance.typepad.com/dr_romance_blog/;
 psychotherapist and author of Money, Sex and Kids: Stop Fighting about the Three Things That Can Ruin Your Marriage; www.tinatessina.com

“If we could give engaged and newlywed couples just one gift that would help ensure their success, it wouldn't be a toaster. It would be information about what to expect along their journey. We humans can do just about anything—climb Mt. Everest, walk on the moon, breast-feed twins—if we just know what to expect. This book delivers. It's filled with loving advice about what to expect in a normal marriage (or remarriage) plus offers heartfelt and helpful wisdom about how to handle the challenges that come with each stage, each milestone. It's a wedding gift that will keep on giving.”

~ Diane Sollee, Founder and Director of www.SmartMarriages.com

“From the moment we began reading this book, my partner and I started talking. We were both initially a little hesitant to jump into a marriage preparation book, partly because both of us had been previously engaged and the preparation process had not worked out well. But instead of feeling awkward reading it together, it helped us realize the strength and the depth in our relationship, affirmed that we were following the right path for us, and gave us concrete steps, goals, and suggestions for heading into a happy, fulfilling, and eternal marriage.”

~ Talia Lindsley, in a serious relationship

“There are a lot of books about marriage. Most of them are by one author, who, if you love, is great. But for those who aren’t well read, have no idea where to begin, or simply want to absorb as much as possible, as efficiently as possible on the topic of marriage, this book hits a home run. The wide variety of voices guarantees you WILL resonate and learn something new to bring into your upcoming or existing marriage.”

~ Elizabeth Doherty Thomas, President of www.TheFirstDance.com, a wedding and premarital relationship website; www.ElizabethDohertyThomas.com

“Imagine finding a book with the collected wisdom of some of the wisest relationship experts of the 21st century. At a time when messages of doom about marriage and enduring relationships abound, Susanne Alexander has created an amazing collection of solid advice for those who want to make relationships work. I have been a Marriage and Family Therapist for more than 30 years and married for 55 years, and I believe you don’t find a soulmate, you learn to become one. The key is for both partners to be open to learning. Susanne’s book, a treasure of information, includes a bibliography of contributors which alone is worth the price of the book.”

~ Elva Anson, L.M.F.T., author of Becoming Soulmates and How to Get Kids to Help at Home (www.familyfirstbooks.com); blog: www.soulmatetips.blogspot.com

“There is a wealth of wisdom between these covers from a vast array of the country’s leading relationship experts. Follow the research cited and advice advocated in this book and your marriage will NOT become 1 of the 2 that currently end in divorce! DON’T get married without it!”

~ Sherry Amatenstein, L.M.S.W., author of The Complete Marriage Counselor; www.marriedfaq.com

“An incredible smorgasbord of relationship wisdom from a broad array of experts on every conceivable aspect of the tricky task of making your own marriage a real success. Planning to wed? Read this first!”

“All too often, married couples find it difficult to get beyond the wedding in their relationship with each other. When the luster of the fairy tale wedding starts to wear off and the difficult part of making a marriage work begins, many newly married couples flounder—they stumble—and sometimes, they fall. But, this can all be prevented by engaging in marriage preparation with resources such as All-in-One Marriage Prep. Using this book will improve your chances of getting it right the first time around.”

~ Drs. Charles and Elizabeth Schmitz, America’s #1 Love and Marriage Experts and Authors of the Best-Selling Book Building a Love that Lasts: The Seven Surprising Secrets of Successful Marriage, www.simplethingsmatter.com

“If couples would spend as much time and research preparing for married life as they do for planning a wedding or buying a car, we would witness many more happy marriages. Marriage, when entered into with wisdom and understanding, becomes a fortress for well-being. This book, with the accumulated wisdom of over 75 experts, offers essential insights and practical advice to prepare any couple contemplating their future together to be equipped for the challenge. This will certainly assist in my counseling as a Family Doctor.”

~ Brenda Maxwell, M.D., M.Sc., Ed. Cert., C.C.F.P., F.C.F.P.

“A brilliant book! Filled with engaging anecdotes and experts’ advice, plus self-assessment quizzes that are enjoyably and ultra-effectively short and sweet, this book is a Must Read for any couples planning to marry in the near future. Pre-marital discussions must cover the serious topics—not just the design of a wedding cake or selecting napkin colors for the reception—to make a marriage not just survivable, but a place where both partners can thrive and grow and like each other as well as love each other. Susanne Alexander's new book is a priceless gift for the future bride and groom, helping them prepare for that happily ever after."

~ Sharon Naylor, author of over 35 books, including Love Bets ; www.sharonnaylor.net

"This is the type of book/guidance I have been looking for. It is so well-organized, and the language is understandable and enjoyable to read. I think this is the "gold" at the end of the rainbow! The section on step families is remarkable. It truly highlights the things that are so very important that I never thought of, because I was not fully aware and in the "it will work because we love each other so much" mind set. There were very touchy things that were discussed with great respect and guidance on the matter. There are so many different writing styles, topics, and points of view that you never get bored with the text—it flows and is not confusing. There are ALWAYS solutions, guidance, and success stories, even if you do encounter problems."

~ F. D., in a serious relationship

"While we must all pass a test to get a license to drive, there is no course that couples must take before receiving a marriage license. The experts in this book all make impassioned pleas for doing the necessary preparation before walking down the aisle, and their insightful advice should be required reading for anyone who is serious about getting and staying married."

~ Jodie Gould, a.k.a. "The Husband Whisperer" and author of Date Like A Man: To Get The Man You Want; www.jodiegould.com

"Marriage advice is only GOOD if it actually helps the relationship and is only CREDIBLE if the person giving advice knows what they're talking about. All-in-One Marriage Prep gives today's seriously dating, engaged, or newlywed couple GOOD and CREDIBLE marriage advice on anything and everything they need as they embark on the marriage journey."

~ K. Jason and Kelli Krafsky, co-authors of Facebook and Your Marriage (www.FBMarriage.com) and author of Before "I Do" (www.FullMarriageExperience.com)

"I regularly use this fabulous resource — the All-in-One Marriage Prep book — in my work with couples to help prepare them for a great marriage. This book covers everything that couples need to know. It's a must read for anyone preparing for a successful marriage, and great for those of us who work with couples professionally as well." (Laura M. Brotherson, www.StrengtheningMarriage.com).

"This comprehensive collection of short articles by various authors is grouped by topic and covers a wide-range of issues for courting, engaged, and newly-wed couples to consider and discuss. Contributors include Claudia and David Arp, John Van Epp, Mark Gungor, Scott Haltzman, Mike McManus, and other well-known experts. This book would also serve longer-married couples well."

~ Jane Ives

"The most impressive thing about this book is the variety of information and resources that it provides. It's the type of book that you don't need to read cover-to-cover to benefit from. You can jump around and take from it the pieces that relate to you and your situation. I would recommend All-in-One Marriage Prep to any couple that is engaged or thinking about becoming engaged. Reading this together will help you reach a new understanding before taking the next big step!"

~ Amazon review

"I've followed author Susanne Alexander for a number of years, first finding her website by 'accident' while looking for a way to transform my understanding of marriage. Her books teach people how to prepare for marriage, how to create a happy, dynamic and stable marriages, and give step-by-step lessons so that people can really understand what goes into a successful marriage. Her vignettes of couples and their lessons are light, practical and useful. Her approach is clearly a spiritual one, and quotes from most of the major religions of the world, to point readers in a spiritual direction, and help them build a solid relational foundation. I strongly urge you to buy this book for your library, share it with engaged friends and relatives, and read it to strengthen your own marriage and relationships.

Powerfully transformational...a MUST read!"

~ Janet Murray

"This is a good book overall. It is pretty thick and has taken me weeks to finish little by little. I purchased this book because my boyfriend and I have talked about getting married and we both think pre-marital counseling is very important. The book definitely has a strong religious slant so that may be offputting to some. Overall, it contains a great deal of valuable information and conversation starters for engaged couples/those considering marriage."

~ Amazon review

"Marriage is quite the leap to make, and can be very intimidating. All-in-One Marriage Prep: 75 Experts Share Tips & Wisdom to Help You Get Ready Now is a collection of wisdom and thought from Susanne M. Alexander as she walks couples through the many angles of marriage with a very Christian element throughout. For any Christian couple who is considering tying the knot and trying to gain a greater understanding of the weight of marriage, All-In-One Marriage Prep is worth considering for them."

~ Midwest Book Review

"A good book to help couples prepare for marriage. Provides useful resources and case studies of real couples. It can get a bit preachy at times and much of their information seems to be based on a religious prep course. It's also a little tedious to read at times."

~ Amazon review

"I really like the fact that this book has so many different perspectives under one cover. For me, it's the kind of book I've been reading piece by piece depending on what kind of advice/information I'm looking for vs. one I'd read cover to cover. It gives a much broader sense of relationships and perspectives on marriage and points you to each author's other materials so that you can learn more based on whatever perspectives you best connect with. Definitely a great resource for people looking to learn more about healthy relationships BEFORE deciding whether or not to take the "next step" and get married. (Good stuff in there for singles, too.)"

~ Heather Luxion

Pure Gold: Encouraging Character Qualities in Marriage

"Engaging, wise, and chock full of ideas that can be immediately put into action and make your marriage a pure joy."

~Paul Coleman, Psy.D., Author of How to Say It for Couples: Communicating with Tenderness, Openness, and Honesty

"Thank you for Pure Gold. Character is the foundation of life."

~ John Covey, Director of Franklin Covey Home and Family Division

"The exercises and suggestions in this book are invaluable for married couples. My husband and I bring it out from time to time just to discuss the material and do a couple of the exercises. We've learned so much about each other that we wouldn't have learned any other way!"

~ Emily Sawka

“My husband was somewhat skeptical when I suggested we try the exercises in Pure Gold. After all, we're newlyweds! We hadn't been together long enough to have any problems. But he "went along" anyway, probably to make sure we continue to "get along." What a bounty! We discovered that the exercises in Pure Gold opened up new topics and gave us the tools to discuss difficult issues BEFORE they became problems. It has greatly enhanced our consultations. We have given the book to newlywed friends and others contemplating marriage. Try it!”

~ Deb Rodgers

“If you long for your marriage to have better communication with a deeper level of commitment, check out Pure Gold. If you are looking for ways to tell whether someone you want to marry has the character qualities for a lasting relationship, check out "Pure Gold". This is a book with insights, wisdom, activities, worksheets, and know-how to assist you in developing your own character as well as helping you to strengthen the practice of qualities in your marriage like truthfulness, trustworthiness, courage, and patience. If the communication patterns in your marriage are often negative and discouraging, the insights and exercises in this book will help you to turn the communications into positive and helpful statements. As a member of a Board of Directors who is responsible for helping couples in difficulty, we find Pure Gold a mine of gems that produce excellent results! “

~ Amazon review

“My husband and I used this book before we got married and we STILL use it now! I think everyone who is getting married should own this book! It provides great strategies for de-escalating conflicts and turning them into deeper understandings about each other.”

~ Terri Muuss

Can We Dance? Learning the Steps for a Fulfilling Relationship

“After reading this book, I have a new-found appreciation for the importance of really exploring myself to know what character qualities I need my mate to possess.”

~ Loretta M. West, 31, single, physical therapist

“I love the combination of information, reflection, and interaction with the arts. This approach is present, reflective, and emotionally, spiritually provocative.”

~ Richard P. Eastburn, 54, single, financial advisor

“Can We Dance? Helped me to examine my beliefs, clarify my motivations, and analyze every step from friendship to a serious relationship. It is full of great tools that are both fun and immediately useful.”

~ Martin Braithwaite, 24, single, marketing executive

A Perfectly Funny Marriage: A Humorous View of Creating a Successful Marriage

“This delightful book shows how the path to a splendid marriage can be both meaningful and fun! Every couple, from their first date to their 50th wedding anniversary, should have it close at hand.”

~ Scott Haltzman, M.D., Author of The Secrets of Happily Married Men and The Secrets of Happily Married Women

“Got it for some friends, for their wedding to replace a congratulatory card. Thought it was really funny, very cute and witty.”

“The cartoons are sweet and funny.”

“The book is so pithy and cute. Cuts right to the heart of so many marriage issues — using both humor and upbeatness. Good gift for anniversaries or weddings.”

~ Johanna M. Wu

“Insightful and hilarious. This book not only teaches the secrets of the most successful marriages, but is hysterical at the same time! I highly recommend this book to anyone looking to take their relationship to the next level. I have never seen so much helpful relationship wisdom in such a quick, fun read. If you've ever looked at another couple with envy, chances are something in this book will be the very idea you've been missing to take you where you want to be as a couple! It's perfect for people in all stages of relationships. Too many books come across as presumptuous, and therefore backfire as a gift. This is not such a book. You'll be so busy laughing, you'll hardly notice yourself becoming smarter at making your dreams come true! For those facing difficult times, this book can help you both to see the humor and provide keys to better days. It's cheaper, faster, and way more funny than therapy. The author has written other significant books on relationships, and she knows her stuff. With this book you get a ‘greatest hits’ of her wisdom in a fun, easy to read package.”

~ Troy Boerner

“In a cornucopia of self-help books, A Perfectly Funny Marriage - A Humorous View of Creating a Successful Marriage is the cream of the crop. Whether you're newly married, celebrating your golden wedding anniversary, contemplating taking the big step, or just going out with someone, author and successful relationship and marriage coach Susanne Alexander offers a multitude of concise, easy to understand steps essential to maintaining a healthy, happy and rewarding relationship, each illustrated with a cartoon that not only drives the message home, but guaranteed to tickle your funny bone. Excellent reading for couples, singles, or anyone looking for solid relationship advice and an evening of endless laughter.”

~ Les A. Giesler

“A Perfectly Funny Marriage sums up a lot of marriage and relationship wisdom in a fun, light-hearted format. The cartoons are clever and entertaining to read. The book would be a perfect gift for an engagement, wedding, or anniversary. It would also be a fabulous waiting room or coffee table book for professionals working with couples. Creating a successful marriage is hard work, but this book demonstrates how marriage can also be filled with laughter!”

~ Emily Sawka

“A Perfectly Funny Marriage is a hilarious look into marriage and dating. I couldn't stop laughing at the comics. It is definitely a great addition to any collection.”

~ Mark Halabecki

“We laughed soooo hard. I truly enjoyed everything about the book. It was VERY well done. Thank you.”

~ Parvin Halabecki

Happy at Home, Happy at Work: The Powerful Rewards of Building Character

“Happy at Home, Happy at Work offers a clear and straightforward way for us to cultivate specific character traits that lead to happiness, allowing our personal and work lives to reflect the strength and congruency that come when we live from our deepest values.”

~ John Cunningham, Director of Advanced Process Services, The RoviSys Company

Coaching

- “I liked the circled gathering with practiced and skilled facilitation and coaching, the gradual pacing, and the consultation and openness.”
- “Thank you so very much for your amazing coaching. You were not only a stand for me getting what I wanted, but you possess the extraordinary ability to get inside one’s world. I will never forget your diligence and commitment to me. What an experience...For me, you will always have the title ‘coach.’”
~ With heartfelt appreciation, Michelle Jenkins
- “We’ve been having some great conversations on many aspects of your recommendations and finding that the assessment process has brought us a lot closer. We’re both really glad we did it, so thanks for taking the time to help us.”
- “In the coaching association, the most valuable aspects for me have been accountability (helping me stay in integrity with what I’ve said I want to do), communication assistance (keeping emotions or personal baggage away from business communication, thus learning to phrase communications with detachment and clarity), and having consistent business support from an authority I respect and trust. Through Susanne Alexander’s kind, focused and professional coaching, I have gained insights into areas within myself that were affecting the presentation of myself and my art in business relationships and in the world at large. I now have more confidence in all areas of my life, both business and personal.”
~ Raphaella Vaisseau, www.heartfulart.com

Editing

- “About Susanne’s book editing services: Your work is excellent. Even though I write well, your editing made my book more concise and polished. Thank you for reading my book and providing your editorial expertise. This was a huge step for me. I appreciate your presence in my life and the value you have added to my work.”
~ Sherlyn Pang Luedtke, Founder, Present Parent Training, www.PresentParentTraining.com
- “I met Susanne by email, submitting a chapter for her book All-in-One Marriage Prep: 75 Experts Share Tips & Wisdom to Help You Get Ready Now. In offering editorial feedback she was gracious, knowledgeable, and clear. Her communication skills put me at ease and let me know I was working with an author I could trust.”
~ Priscilla Hunt, Executive Director at Better Marriages, www.bettermarriages.com
- “Susanne M. Alexander brought together 75 authors, including me, in her new book, All-in-One Marriage Prep: 75 Experts Share Tips and Wisdom to Help You Get Ready Now. It was a huge undertaking and she did a terrific job. She is knowledgeable, organized, tenacious, and a bunch of fun. I recommend her highly.”
~ Dr. Molly Barrow, Psychologist, www.drollybarrow.com
